On March 28th 2006, when His Holiness passed into Parinirvana, it shocked and saddened us, not knowing what to say or do, this lament invoking the essence of the sacred meditation arose in Little Yogi Sangnak's mind and wrote it for my own aspirational prayers. I did not intend for it to be distributed. May it fulfill the aspiration exactly as it is wished!

May this be fulfilled exactly as it is wished! May it be virtuous!*

Thus, the Light of the Teachings of the Ancient Translation Tradition, His Holiness Tertön Kunzang Dechen Lingpa Rinpoche, perhaps to engage the students who only hold the mere sign of practitioner onto the path of Dharma, passed into Parinirvana as an aspect of his life and liberation. We, who live near Gorzang Chorten, at Tsepak Retreat, as soon as we heard the sad news from Kunkhyen Tsona Kyabgon, felt as if our hearts and lungs were shattered. Not knowing what to say or do, this swift rebirth prayer, "The Melodious Conch with the Clockwise Swirl" arose in my mind without hindrance. On the next day, near Tawang, in my own cabin, my brother Tenzing Wangpo repeatedly requested it, I, a holder of the series of reincarnations of the Deity and Lama of Ngari, Yeshe Yod, a vagabond and a monk of the Shakyamuni's order, Richa Lhayod wrote this on the dawn of the auspicious first day of the second month of the Fire Dog Year and offered it with a silk scarf. May this be accomplished as exactly as wished!

These prayers were generously translated with great faith by Khenpo Sonam (of POL) while on pilgrimage here at Zangdokpalri Temple, Arunachal Pradesh.
